Keynote Speaker 5:00 p.m. – Tyrone Griffin – “Bunny Slippers are Evil”

Tyrone Griffin, Senior Analyst - Advanced Analytics

During a job search you will learn that you are not alone. Tyrone will emphasize the need to reach out to people in your same situation because sometime family and even some friends can't help. You will learn how to keep your sanity in an insane situation. You will learn how to just keep going and how to keep your faith in God.

In his keynote presentation, Tyrone will move you away from the comfort and isolation of "bunny slippers" and help you put your job search into action. He has many strategies to share that will make a difference in your search.

Tyrone Griffin has several decades of corporate experience, across multiple industries and several Fortune 500 companies. When he found himself in job transition, he put his faith in God and refused to embrace the negative aspects of his situation. While still looking for his next great opportunity he turned his attention to helping his fellow job seekers and tried to give a voice to the anxieties that people in transition experience. He also started a podcast to not only define the tactics of job search, but also how to get through the mental and emotional challenges of transition. He continues his podcast today.
